

Our Farm 2

Colour in the animals.
Then complete the blanks
with the colour/pattern
you chose.

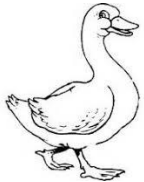

_____ bird

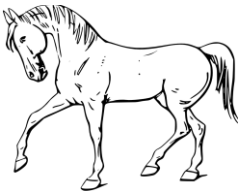

_____ pig

_____ frog

_____ duck

_____ horse

Read the poem and possessive pronouns aloud with your teacher.

What are you Growing in Your Garden, Please?

In my garden grow carrots and cherries.
And you? What are you growing, tell me please?

In my garden, I am growing some cheese.
Cheese?! Silly goose - you are not growing cheese!
I know, I joke, I'm only growing peas.

Possessive Pronouns

★ my	★ our
★ your	★ your
★ his/her/its	★ their

Questions and Answers - Read the questions and respond.

1. What are you growing in your garden?

In my garden, I am growing _____, _____,
and _____.

2. What is she growing in her garden?

In _____ garden, _____ growing _____,
_____, and _____.

3. What are we growing in our garden?

In _____ garden, _____
_____.

Ce que tu peux faire pour continuer ton apprentissage à la maison :

1. Dire et écrire 4 phrases utilisant un verbe au 'present continuous' et en utilisant au moins un possessif.
2. Apprendre les possessifs par cœur à l'écrit et à l'oral.
3. Apprendre la poésie par cœur.

Maintenant je sais...

- > Utiliser le verbe 'to grow' au 'present continuous' dans une phrase
- > dire et écrire les mots de vocabulaire
- > utiliser les possessifs

Rendez-vous sur
lebusbilingue.com
pour tout le contenu
des ateliers !

Explication pour "possessives":

On utilise les "possessives" pour exprimer quelque chose que l'on possède.

Pour dire "c'est mon livre," on dit "it's my book".

Pour dire "c'est ton livre," on dit "it's your book".

Pour dire "c'est notre livre," on dit "it's our book".

